A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE YOCOM FAMILY OF CLAY COUNTY, INDIANA

by

John Elliott Blubaugh

This manuscript is meant to make the ancestry of the Yocom family more easily understood by my family. The paper is taken almost entirely from Dr. H.C. Smith's work "The Yoakum, Yocom, Yocum, Families."

1. Heinrich Jochem was born in Germany sometime before 1633. His parentage is unknown. Heinrich's wife was Gertrude (Geertje) and her parents are also unknown. They immigrated to New Amsterdam (New York) in 1661 on the ship "Beaver". They had at least three children:

Mathias

b. C. 1653

Ann

Jane

2. Mathias Jochem was born circa 1653 in Germany. He was the son of Heinrich and Gertrude Jochem. No other data is available except that he had a son:

Frances

b. c. 1678

d. c. 1752

3. Frances Jochem was the son of Mathias Jochem. His mother is not recorded. Frances was born circa 1678 in New Amsterdam, New York. He married Millie Felty but the date and site of the marriage are not known. She is identified as being a member of an old Pennsylvania family but her parents are also unknown. Apparently Frances followed the family (what family is not clear) to the Northern Neck of Virginia. His estate was administered in Hampshire County, Virginia in 1752 by his son Mathias. Frances and Millie (Felty) Jochem had seven sons.

4. Mathias Yoakum was born in 1715 probably in New Amsterdam. He was the son of Frances and Millie (Felty) Jochem. Apparently education was lightly regarded on the frontier. This generation must have been illiterate and the original spelling of Jochem was lost to the new world forever. Yocom, Yocum, and Yoakum are only a few of the phonetic attempts to spell Jochem. Mathias married Eleanor See, the daughter of George Ludwig and Margaret (Tschudi) See. The date and site of this marriage is unknown. Mathias and Elenor (Tschudi) Yoakum had twelve known children. They were:

Francis	b. c. 1729	d. 1751
Felty	b. c. 1730	d. 17 July 1763
Jacob	b. c. 1732
Valentine	b. c. 1734	d. 1764
Mathias	b. c. 1736
Jesse	b. c. 1738
Michael	b. c. 1740

John	b. 1747	d. 4 Sep 1839
William	b. 1750
Henry	b. c. 1753
George	b. c. 1755

5. William Yocom was born in 1750 in Virginia, probably Hampshire Co. He made a trip to the Kentucky Settlements by way of the Wilderness Road in 1781, accompanied by his son, William, Jr. An affidavit was made by William, Jr. for his Uncle John Yocom on 11 Aug 1834 in Clay County, IN. The affidavit is as follows;

I, William Yocum, recollect meeting John Yocum, in the Wilderness of Kentucky, I think on Richland Creek. He was then on foot and had a gun and I think a knap sack on his back. My father was then on his way to Kentucky. They halted and talked together and I then understood by their conversation that the above John Yocom had with my father, that he had then been out on a campaign in Kentucky at Louisville under Gen. Clark. He stated he was on his way to Virginia. I well recollect he moved out a few years later to Kentucky and lived on my father's plantation for several years. I think he had no record of his age but he was some older than my father, perhaps two or three years. My father was born in 1750 and I have known John Yocom for 45 years. 11 Aug. 1834.

Recorded in Pension Office,

s/William Yocum

Book E. Vol. 7, p. 144.

Daniel Wools, Assoc. Judge

This meeting took place near the present Harrodsburg, KY. They had met William, Sr.'s brother John, on the road, returning to Virginia from his tour of duty with George Rogers Clark against the Wabash Indians. In 1796, he, with his brother John and John, Sr. joined George Yocom in Madison Co., KY; all being on the tax list of Montgomer Co., KY in 1797. In 1799, his nephew Francis was added to the list and his son William followed in 1800, as also did Francis, Jr. and Jacob. We have no record of William, Sr.'s marriage or death, except he died in Kentucky. His family, except William, Jr., Francis, and John who accompanied their father to Kentucky in 1781, is only indicative. The issue of William Yocom, Sr. was:

William	b. 21 Jan 1775	d. 4 Nov 1840
Jonathan	b. c. 1780
John	b. c. 1782
George	b. c. 1784
Jacob	b. c. 1786
Alexander	b. c. 1791

6. William Yocom was born 21 Jan 1775 in Augusta Co., VA. He was the son of William Yocom, Sr., his mother is unknown. He married Sarah (Sally) Stewart in 1796. He moved with the family to Clark Co., later Montgomer Co., KY in 1796. William came to Clay County, IN in the 1830's. He was a member of the Indiana General Assembly from 1833-34. His biographical sketch in the "Directory of the Indiana General Assembly" reads as follows:

q.v.) Born in 1775 in Virginia. Married Sarah Stewart, 1796 (12 children).

8. Margaret Ann Downing was born in Clay County, IN on 1 July 1839. She was the daughter of John and Mary (Yocom) Downing. On 13 June 1861 she married John Blubaugh, the son of Jacob and Elizabeth (Shonk) Blubaugh in Clay County, IN. The service was performed by Elder Frances B. Yocom, the uncle of the bride. The descendants of Margaret Ann Downing are outlined in another paper by this author "The Downing-Blubaugh Connection". Any interested reader should consult that manuscript for a detailed list of Margaret Ann's descendants. Margaret Ann (Downing) Blubaugh died 7 May 1877 and she is buried in Bee Ridge Cemetery, Clay County, IN. John Blubaugh remarried Catherine Beatty in Owen County, IN. They had four sons in Owen Co. The issue of Margaret Ann (Downing) Blubaugh and John Blubaugh was:

William Blubaugh	b. 1863
Oliver P. Blubaugh	b. 24 May 1870	d. 10 Jan 1947
Emma Blubaugh	b. 18 Apr 1874	d. 2 Jul 1957

Note: William Blubaugh apparently died in childhood. The only record of him is the 1870 Clay County, IN census, where he is listed as a seven year old boy. He was never mentioned by Oliver or Emma Blubaugh. His burial site is unknown, but is probably an unmarked grave in Bee Ridge Cemetery.

I am certainly honored to be descended from the Yocom family. William Yocom, Jr. was certainly an important early citizen of Clay County, IN.
